

ICoTA Canada 2016 Roundtable Program – 19th October

Ramada Plaza Downtown 708-8th Ave SW, Calgary, Alberta

7:00	Registration & Buffet Breakfast
8:00	Opening Remarks – President ICoTA Canada
8:10	Recent advancements with a unified CT extended reach technology – Silviu Livescu (Baker Hughes)
8:35	Optimization of metal-on-metal lubricants for CT applications – Scott Sherman (Trican)
9:00	Agitating explosives in extended reach wells; a good idea? – Jack Kolle (Tempress Technologies)
9:25	Coiled Tubing roles in re-fracs– Eric Schmelzl (NCS)
9:50	Coffee Break & Exhibition (40 mins)
10:30	Challenges building a 9000m string; reaching the limits in extended reach operations? – Irma Galvan (Global)
10:55	A new CT grade for improved general and sour service – Bruce Reichert (Tenaris)
11:20	Development and compatibility testing of CT with 140 ksi min. yield strength – Kevin Elliott (Quality Tubing)
11:45	The Challenges of CT failure analysis – Justin Bekker (Stress Engineering)
12:10	Group photograph for presenters only (by registration table)
12:10	Lunch & Exhibition
12:45	Keynote address: – G. Allen Brooks (G. Allen Brooks LLC)
13:35	Real-time Collaborative Interventions – Arun Joseph (Stimeline)
13:50	Online KPI's enable operators to assess service company performance – Paul Brown (Coildata)
14:05	Potential effects of water hammer pulses on sand transport– Jack Kolle (Tempress Technologies)
14:20	Hydraulic short trips for cleaner wellbores – Kevin Thiessen (Thru' Tubing Solutions)
14:35	A novel method of transporting sand – Scott Churchill (Trican)
15:00	Coffee Break & Exhibition (25 mins)
15:25	Choosing a biocide for well interventions; protecting your equipment, fluids & reservoir – C.McMechan (OSP)
15:50	CT telemetry system improvements; monitoring real time tension, compression and torque – T.Watkins (Baker)
16:15	Thin clad CRA : down hole corrosion protection – Stefan Hartman (Shell International)
16:40	Closing remarks – President ICoTA Canada
16:45	Sponsored Cocktails & Exhibition